Last Friday was sports day at Ahmad's school. All the students went to the big field behind the school at eight o'clock in the morning. First, there were running races, and Ahmad won the 100-metre race. His friend Badr came second. After that, the older students played a football match, and the girls had a basketball game. Teachers gave cold water and oranges to all the players. At twelve o'clock, the head teacher stood on a small stage and gave medals to the winners. Ahmad got a gold medal for his race, and his parents took photos of him. Everyone was tired but happy, and the students went home at one o'clock. Ahmad says it was the best day of the school year.
